PERSONAL SERVICE EXPENDITURE OF GRANT FUNDS

Personal Service Grant Funds (personnel committed to the grant performing either straight time hours/tours or overtime hours/tours) are expended, in most instances, when a member of the service performs duty (in connection with the grant) at the prevailing cash straight time or overtime rate. Overtime, taken in time, does not expend grant funds. Should a member of the service perform grant funded overtime and elect to receive compensation in time, additional cash overtime hours will have to be performed to expend grant funding.

OTHER THAN PERSONAL SERVICES FUNDS

Those grants that provide for "Other Than Personal Services" funding components (e.g., equipment purchase, rental, leasing, etc.) require the preparation of an itemized listing of equipment required, prior to the funding date. Equipment cost and availability can be determined by contacting the unit responsible for purchasing the item (i.e., Support Services Bureau, Deputy Commissioner, Information Technology, Quartermaster Section, etc.). This procedure will eliminate delays in entering the equipment bidding process or modifying existing contracts with vendors. Department executives/commanding officers must take into consideration the extensive delays encountered in the equipment bidding process (twelve to eighteen months) and the effect this process will have on meeting the grant's operational objectives and the expenditure of grant funds as scheduled.

GRANTS REQUIRING A MATCHING FUNDS OR COST SHARE COMPONENT

If a grant has a matching funds or cost share requirement, an appropriate method of meeting the requirement will be determined by the Director, Grants Unit and approved by the Deputy Commissioner, Management and Budget. This method will be determined prior to the submission of the grant application.

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:
324-04	11/18/21	I.O. 99	2 of 2

ADDITIONAL DATA

Neither the Borough Commander or Borough Executive Officer may select the same vacation pick, unless there is another Borough Executive Officer assigned within the Borough and available to perform duty.

In Patrol Borough and Bureau commands, Inspectors and Deputy Inspectors will be grouped together for the purpose of vacation selection. Vacation selection order will be determined by seniority in rank with Inspectors picking first followed by Deputy Inspectors.

Precinct/Unit Operations Coordinators will select vacation separately from other lieutenants assigned to the command and may not be on vacation at the same time as the Commanding Officer.

Precinct Integrity Control Officers in the rank of either lieutenant or sergeant are to select vacation separately from other lieutenants or sergeants assigned to the command. If there are two ranking officers performing ICO duties, they may not be on vacation at the same time.

Bureau/Division/Unit Commanders, other than Patrol Services Bureau, Patrol Borough commands may prepare an alternate vacation selection plan, consistent with the needs of their respective Bureau/Division/Unit. The twelve percent limit on vacations should be adhered to when possible, however, there may be times when due to limited staffing in certain commands this is not possible.

Members of the service in the ranks of sergeant and lieutenant are entitled to 27 vacation days per year. Members in the ranks of captain through deputy chief are entitled to 26 vacation days per year, which are accrued on January 1st. Ranking officers may select up to five separate weeks' vacation, however, only three weeks may be type 'A' weeks. Ranking officers should use entire weeks, if possible. Ranking officers are also entitled to two individual vacation days per year to be selected in conjunction with the annual vacation selection. Only two percent of the unit rank complement are entitled to use an individual vacation day on any given day, however, other types of leave may be granted, needs of the service permitting. Ranking officers may not select more than one of the following holidays as an IVD: New Year's Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, or Christmas Day

Ranking officers who are transferred or promoted during the calendar year do not automatically retain their vacation selections. Ranking officers may retain original vacation selections if the efficiency of the command is not impaired, however, minor adjustments may be made to reflect new chart assignments. If this is not possible, ranking officers will select vacation from the weeks remaining.

Members of the service may only request an E-Day during the interval between the member's last tour of duty performed and the start of their next scheduled tour of duty.

If the E-Day has been granted, the desk officer will ensure a LEAVE OF ABSENCE REPORT is prepared for the requesting member.*

not provide a current Enlistment Contract/Oath of Office. The Military and Extended Leave Desk will remove the member from the active reserve roster. In order for military members to be granted military leave days the member must be on the active reserve roster.

The member of the service may NOT be disciplined for failing to provide documentation regarding their military leave if said leave is for thirty days or less, or for failing to elect the type of leave to be used. However, if there is a legitimate question as to whether the member actually performed military service during the requested leave time, the Department may investigate and any substantiated allegation may subject the member to disciplinary action.

As per the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) of 1994, a member leaving to perform military drill or other military appearance must be granted enough time after leaving employment with the Department to organize the member's personal affairs, safely travel to the location of where the service is to be performed, and arrive fit to perform the military service. Official Military Orders and Certificates of Attendance received from a member's military Reserve or National Guard unit should be in the format illustrated in Appendices "A" and "B," or in a format that includes all of the information as listed on Appendices "A" and "B."

Any questions concerning military leave should be referred to the Personnel Bureau, Military and Extended Leave Desk.

A child care leave of absence without pay will be granted only after all accrued leave has been exhausted. A uniformed member's vacation is granted January 1, for that year, but is not to be considered accrued unless the member is in a "full pay" status for the required number of tours for that month.

A uniformed member of the service who requests a child care leave of absence without pay for less than thirty days will be guided by A.G. 324-08, "Leave of Absence Without Pay Twenty-Nine \(29\) Days or Less."

Member will receive no pay during the leave of absence. Member will be required to make up this time lost before member will be considered eligible for retirement. This time on leave will not be credited for pension purposes. Any time in excess of six months on leave - no pay status - will be considered a break in continuous service, and thereby preclude vested interest retirement for five years after return to duty.

All Department property, except the Department Manual, must be surrendered on the member's last tour of duty, prior to commencement of leave of absence.

Extensions of a child care leave of absence without pay will NOT be granted. A member may terminate such leave prior to the scheduled expiration date upon advance notification to the Military and Extended Leave Desk.

While on a leave of absence, a uniformed member of the service will be required to appear for any hearings or trials in which the member is the arresting officer, witness, or respondent and will notify the Military and Extended Leave Desk prior to such appearance.

The Military and Extended Leave Desk will make salary payment computations upon documentation of mandatory appearance.

- d. After the desk officer/supervisor concludes the investigation, the overtime may be approved if appropriate. However, a copy of the report detailing the facts of the investigation will be attached to the OVERTIME REPORT in lieu of the missing COURT ATTENDANCE RECORD.

Payroll clerks shall process OVERTIME REPORTS with COURT ATTENDANCE RECORDS/Investigative Reports attached and file as directed, COURT ATTENDANCE RECORDS not involving overtime will continue to be filed as directed in P.G. 211-01, "Duties And Conduct In Court."

The procedure outlined above will apply whether cash or time compensation is selected for the overtime and regardless of the reason for the court appearance.

*Any disciplinary action taken for failure to submit OVERTIME REPORTS (PD 138-064) in a timely manner should not impact upon the payment of the overtime to the member of the service who failed to submit the request promptly. EQUALIZATION OF SUPERVISOR'S OVERTIME
DATE EFFECTIVE: 11/18/21	LAST REVISION: I.O. 110	PAGE: 1 of 2

PURPOSE To equalize the distribution of cash overtime to supervisors in the rank of sergeant and lieutenant.

PROCEDURE To equally distribute cash overtime to sergeants and lieutenants:

COMMANDING OFFICER 1. Designate an overtime coordinator, preferably the operations coordinator or the executive officer.

OVERTIME COORDINATOR 2. Allocate cash overtime equitably.
3. Ensure that supervisors do NOT accrue cash overtime in excess of the following limits:
a. Four overtime tours per quarter.
b. Sixteen overtime tours per twelve month period.

NOTE The above limits include ALL CASH OVERTIME regardless of how it was earned. Overtime earned for periods less than a full tour will be consolidated, and an equivalent number of full tours will be counted towards the supervisor's limit.

OVERTIME COORDINATOR 4. Allocate no more than four overtime tours per quarter, per supervisor.

NOTE If circumstances warrant, a commanding officer/unit head may allocate additional tours in excess of the four tour limit provided that it would not result in a supervisor exceeding the sixteen tour limit in a twelve month period. Supervisors will not be permitted to work overtime more than sixteen tours in a twelve month period without the permission of the Chief of Department or a bureau chief. The sixteen tour limit is not based on a calendar year, or a fiscal year. It is based on the overtime earned during the current month plus the preceding eleven months.

COMMANDING OFFICER 5. Direct command timekeeper to review overtime records of all supervisors assigned to the command on the first of every month.

TIMEKEEPER 6. Prepare a report on the first of every month listing the names of those supervisors assigned to the command who have earned thirteen or more cash overtime tours during the preceding eleven months.
7. Forward report to commanding officer/unit head supervisor concerned.

COMMANDING OFFICER 8. Notify supervisors concerned, based on timekeeper's report that overtime for the current month will be restricted.
a. Supervisors with sixteen or more tours will NOT be eligible.
b. Supervisors with fifteen to thirteen tours will be limited to one to three tours respectively.

MEMBER

OVERHEAD COMMAND

9. Maintain a record of notifications.
10. Accept assignments for supervisory overtime from overtime coordinator or designee ONLY.

ADDITIONAL
DATA

When a commanding officer approves an increase in overtime for one quarter, it will result in an equal decrease in the limit for the next quarter, i.e., a sergeant is performing a 1600 to 2400 tour and due to an insufficient number of supervisors working the late tour, the commanding officer extends the tour four hours to cover patrol. This results in the sergeant exceeding the four tour limit by one-half tour. The sergeant's limit for the next quarter would be reduced to three and one-half tours. Overtime travel guarantee (Portal to Portal) will not be counted in the calculation towards the sixteen tour overtime cap.

When it is necessary to extend a supervisor's tour, efforts should be made to limit the extension. As a general rule, the extension should be limited to one-half tour, with one full tour being the maximum extension.

OVERHEAD COMMAND

5. Create a file and maintain EXECUTIVE WEEKLY TIME RECORDS submitted by all executive uniformed members of the service within command.
6. Designate a member of the service to periodically review records stored and comply with the Department retention schedules outlined in yearly Operations Order entitled, "Destruction of Records."

ADDITIONAL DATA

The New York City Charter prohibits the destruction of records without prior approval from the New York City Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) and the Corporation Counsel. The Commanding Officer, Office of Management Analysis and Planning serves as the liaison between the Police Department and these two agencies for this purpose.

Schedules for the destruction of records are published via a yearly Operations Order. This Order is not meant to cover every record in a command but rather to clear out the "bulk" records so that storage space is always available.

In those instances, the Integrity Review Board will make the designation.*
- e. Acts worthy of Departmental recognition which involve members from multiple bureau/division commands will be processed through patrol precincts.*
- f. Assistance in the preparation of the DEPARTMENTAL RECOGNITION REQUEST form may be obtained by contacting the Human Resources Division Departmental Recognition Unit.*

LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS

All information entered on the DEPARTMENTAL RECOGNITION REQUEST is considered "Rosario" material and should be a factual statement of the member of service's role in a particular matter. There should be no descriptive embellishment of the facts. In addition, all written statements taken from witnesses should be considered "Rosario" material. Since the defense attorney in a criminal case has the right to examine a witness's prior statement, if a witness testifies, the appropriate District Attorney's office must be advised of the existence of requests for Departmental recognition as well as other witness statements in a pending case. Due to "Rosario" material potential, every request must include the legal name of each member of the service; any initials, nicknames, etc. of a member of the service are not permitted on the DEPARTMENTAL RECOGNITION REQUEST.

DEPARTMENT POLICY

Request for Departmental recognition should be limited to those members who are directly involved with the arrest/incident (i.e., arresting officer and partner). If the incident involved personal risk, danger or unusual accomplishment, each member requesting recognition must explain their direct involvement in the incident. Furthermore, supervisors of units must explain how their actions exceeded normal supervisory or administrative duties in order to be considered for recognition.

Departmental Recognition Committees are composed of five uniformed members of the service: two ranking officers (one of whom will be designated chairperson) and three non-supervisory officers (which may include a member of the precinct detective squad), will be established by each precinct and patrol borough command. Similarly, commands which report to the Housing Bureau, Detective Bureau (not including precinct detective squads), Transit Bureau, Chief of Community Affairs, Chief of Transportation, and Chief of Special Operations, will also establish Departmental Recognition Committees utilizing the same group composition. Bureau Recognition Committees will be established in each bureau command for these more complex or unusual cases.

Precinct/Command Recognition Committee members will be clearly identified and convene each quarter. Commanding officers will not be present when Precinct/Command Recognition Committee convenes.

The highest ranking officer who is responsible for indicating approval/disapproval of REQUEST MUST be in a rank of at least one level higher than any of the recipients of the medal and MUST NOT be one of the recipients of the requesting medal. Each additional endorsement (when applicable) MUST be approved/disapproved by the next higher rank based on the previous endorsement.

When a REQUEST is forwarded to a bureau chief/counterpart for evaluation based on expertise, the bureau chief/counterpart will make the final determination on Excellent Police Duty, Meritorious Police Duty and Commendations, except in cases where integrity forms the basis of the REQUEST.

Precinct commanding officers/command counterparts may recommend either a Meritorious Police Duty or a Commendation for acts of integrity. Regardless of the level of award recommended.

All approved DEPARTMENTAL RECOGNITION REQUESTS being forwarded to the Honor Committee or Integrity Review Board will be accompanied by a Typed Letterhead.

If a discharge of a firearm by the member of the service is the basis for the REQUEST, the Borough/Bureau/Counterpart Recognition Committee will ensure that all appropriate forms including the THREAT, RESISTANCE OR INJURY (T.R.I.) INCIDENT REPORT, UNUSUAL OCCURRENCE REPORTS (PD370-152) (including the preliminary UNUSUAL OCCURRENCE REPORT endorsed from the designated Borough Chief to the Chief of Department, and the UNUSUAL OCCURRENCE REPORT on the FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS by the designated Borough), Crime Scene Unit sketches, etc., and the final determination of the Firearms Discharge Review Board by the Chief of Department or the Use of Force Review Board by the First Deputy Commissioner, as applicable, are attached to the REQUEST and forwarded to the Honor Committee for consideration.

- e. Interviews for investigative assignments, (e.g., Detective Bureau, etc).

The Integrity Review Board may recommend that uniformed members of the service be granted interviews for a potential assignment to one of the Department's investigative track units for having effected arrests for bribery or other acts of high integrity. The actual impact or perceived impact of the "Eighteen Month Detective Designation Law" should not affect the decision to grant an interview to a well deserving uniformed member. The integrity of the Department is of the utmost concern and efforts to properly reward uniformed members for their exemplary conduct should NOT be diminished.

PROMOTION TO THIRD GRADE DETECTIVE (INVESTIGATOR)

PURPOSE

To facilitate promotion of police officers to third grade detective investigator upon their successful accrual of eighteen months full duty time in a detective position within one of the identified detective track commands.

DEFINITIONS

DETECTIVE TRACK COMMANDS: The following represent the Department's detective track commands:

1. Certain specific Squads/Units/Teams within the Detective Bureau,
2. Collision Investigations Squad,
3. Technical Assistance Response Unit
4. Internal Affairs Bureau
5. Bureau/patrol borough investigations units
6. Intelligence Bureau
7. Deputy Commissioner, Intelligence and Counterterrorism, Joint Terrorist Task Force.

DETECTIVE POSITIONS: Those core positions within the detective track commands that require the police officer who desires promotion to detective investigator, or the tenured detective, to conduct the significant aspects of criminal investigations reflective of the mission of the particular detective track commands. Involvement in these criminal investigations is virtually daily and forms the basis of the individual's work and functions in the particular detective track commands. Performance evaluations are conducted on PERFORMANCE EVALUATION - DETECTIVES AND POLICE OFFICERS ASSIGNED TO DETECTIVE TRACK COMMANDS (Online Evaluation System) (with corresponding guidebook).

NON-DETECTIVE POSITIONS: Those ancillary positions within the detective track commands, which provide support to the cadre of detective positions within the particular detective track command. Individuals in these non-detective positions cannot be unilaterally assigned to perform the significant aspects of the criminal investigations that reflect the mission of the particular detective track command. Police officers concerned who perform in any non-detective position within any of the detective track commands cannot accrue detective track time.

Examples of non-detective positions include, but are not limited to, administrative, analyst, clerical positions, physical plant security assignments, courier/messenger positions, etc. Performance evaluations are conducted on PERFORMANCE EVALUATION - POLICE OFFICER - DETECTIVE SPECIALIST (Online Evaluation System) (with corresponding guidebook).

PROCEDURE

To process for promotion a police officer in a detective position in any one of the designated detective track commands.

ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDE

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:
329-13	11/18/21	I.O. 99	2 of 4

PERSONNEL ORDERS DIVISION

1. Monitor the amount of detective position time accrued by police officers assigned to detective track commands.
2. Provide Human Resources Division with a list of police officers who have at least fourteen months of investigative credit.

HUMAN RESOURCES DIVISION

3. Review and compute any deductions of accrued investigative credit of police officers assigned to detective track commands.
4. Provide bureau chief of detective track command concerned with a list of those police officers who have met the experience criteria as outlined in the definitions no later than three months prior to qualification date.

BUREAU CHIEF DETECTIVE TRACK COMMAND

5. Submit a separate report on Typed Letterhead to Human Resources Division for each member eligible for promotion within ten business days of receiving the list and include:
 - a. Reasons for recommending promotion and results of eighth and fifteen month evaluations. Evaluation must be conducted using PERFORMANCE EVALUATION - DETECTIVES AND POLICE OFFICERS ASSIGNED TO DETECTIVE TRACK COMMANDS, and there must be confirmation that the individual was performing in a criminal investigative (i.e. detective) role. If the officer has already “banked” detective track time, then all prior detective track evaluations ONLY must be reviewed by the officer’s present commanding officer for acceptable performance. A notation that this review has been conducted must appear on the present evaluation.
 - b. Reason for not recommending an eligible officer, e.g. performance, sick record, etc.
 - c. In cases where there are substantial reasons to believe that the strict application of the “Guidelines for Accrual of Detective Track Time” would be unfair, give a detailed account of those reasons together with a concise statement of the deducted time period being appealed.

NOTE

The performance of police officers in detective track commands must be accurately recorded on the eighth and fifteenth month evaluations. Supervisors are mandated to forward these evaluations in a timely manner. It is critical that police officers in detective track commands who do not merit promotion to detective be identified by the eighth month evaluation. In these cases, ample narrative on the eight month evaluation must explain the performance deficiency of the officer and the action to be taken (e.g. transfer out of the detective track command). If a transfer is not the recommended action, because the supervisor states that the performance deficiency can be addressed and corrected while the officer remains in the detective track command, thus enabling the officer to continue accrual of detective track time towards promotion, then a more focused performance review must take place between the eighth and fifteenth month evaluation. At the midpoint within this period (i.e. approximately the twelfth month), an interim evaluation may be forwarded if it is determined within this time frame that the individual’s performance deficiency cannot be corrected, therefore necessitating a transfer out of the detective track

 - a. Candidates not recommended for promotion.
 - b. Appeals relating to detective track time accrual guidelines.

9. Review all documentation.
10. Interview candidates, if necessary.
11. Make recommendations to the Chief of Personnel.

NOTE

Those candidates not recommended for promotion will be transferred to a non-detective track command.

CHIEF OF PERSONNEL

12. Forward final list of candidates considered for promotion to the Promotion Advisory Board.

PROMOTION ADVISORY BOARD

13. Review final list of candidates received from Personnel Bureau and forward to the Police Commissioner.

ADDITIONAL
DATA

Whenever a detective track command submits a REQUEST FOR PERSONNEL (PD406-040), it must be clearly stated under "Reason for Transfer", what functions, whether detective or non-detective, will be performed by the officer. Commanding officers of all detective track commands must maintain a defined list of detective and non-detective positions within their commands. Officers assigned to non-detective positions, albeit within a detective command, will NOT gain detective track time towards promotion to Detective Investigator. Commanding officers of detective track commands are responsible for ensuring that any police officers that are in identified, non-detective, positions are formally notified in writing of their exclusion from detective track time accrual. This notification must be expressly stated to the officer and a copy of the notification placed in the officer's personal folder. In a further delineation between detective and non-detective positions within any of the above detective track commands, commanding officers are responsible for ensuring that detectives are NOT serving in any of the non-detective positions identified within their command. Likewise, commanding officers must ensure that non-detective track personnel DO NOT perform the significant aspects of criminal investigations that are associated with the detective positions within their detective track command.

GUIDELINES FOR ACCRUAL OF DETECTIVE TRACK TIME

Police officers may only enter one of the detective track commands to accrue detective track time after first qualifying with the Department's Career Program. However, this does not limit or change the Department's right or managerial prerogatives to assign personnel. Once approved and transferred into a detective track command, an officer's accrual of detective track time towards promotion to detective investigator does not have to be consecutive. For example, a transfer for only a six month interval would be banked and could, in the future, be used in combination with other detective track command time towards promotion to detective investigator. A PERFORMANCE EVALUATION must be completed for any officer who, at the conclusion of the six month interval, is transferred out of the detective track command. The original PERFORMANCE EVALUATION must be forwarded to the Performance Analysis Section. A copy of the PERFORMANCE EVALUATION must also be placed in the uniformed member's command Personal Folder.

A police officer must accrue eighteen months full duty time in an identified detective position within one of the detective track commands, or within a combination of the detective track commands, in order to be promoted to detective investigator.

The following guidelines will be used for computing the amount of time a police officer has been assigned to a detective position within one of the detective track commands:

- a. If at any time during the eighteen month period a police officer accumulates thirty calendar days in one of the following categories, any additional time accrued in that particular category will be deducted from that person's unadjusted detective track time (calculated from the date of assignment to detective track command):
 - (1) Sick leave, except as a result of new line of duty injury
 - (2) Restricted duty/limited capacity.

If officer is already permanently assigned to a detective position within one of the detective track commands, and can continue to perform normal detective position duties while on restricted/limited capacity, then the deductions of this time may be appealed, as indicated.

- b. All time (i.e., each calendar day) spent on leave of absence (as authorized by Military and Extended Leave Desk, with or without pay) will be deducted.
- c. All time spent on suspension (e.g., each calendar day) will be deducted.

No new detective track commands may be established without the permission of the Police Commissioner. In extenuating circumstances, application of the above guidelines is subject to appeal.

CAREER PATH FOR SERGEANTS AND LIEUTENANTS SEEKING ASSIGNMENT TO THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS BUREAU, DETECTIVE BUREAU, COUNTERTERRORISM BUREAU, OR INTELLIGENCE BUREAU

PURPOSE

To afford qualified supervisors the means to request transfer to the Internal Affairs Bureau and provide a career path for sergeants and lieutenants seeking assignment to the Detective Bureau, Counterterrorism Bureau, or Intelligence Bureau.

DEFINITION

SUPERVISORY ASSIGNMENT BOARD – A board consisting of the Chief of Personnel (Chairperson), Deputy Commissioner, Internal Affairs, Chief of Detectives, Chief of Counterterrorism, Chief of Intelligence and the Chief of Patrol or their representatives. The Supervisory Assignment Board screens and selects only highly motivated supervisors possessing the necessary skills and potential to be successful in the Internal Affairs Bureau, Detective Bureau, Counterterrorism Bureau, or Intelligence Bureau. The Supervisory Assignment Board evaluates sergeants and lieutenants who have been deemed worthy of consideration based on their past records (commanding officer's recommendation, central personnel index, etc.). Under this career path, the Internal Affairs Bureau, Detective Bureau, Counterterrorism Bureau, and Intelligence Bureau will be permitted to select new supervisors only from among those approved by the Supervisory Assignment Board.

SERGEANT/ LIEUTENANT CONCERNED

1. Prepare CAREER PROGRAM APPLICATION FOR TRANSFER OF SERGEANT/LIEUTENANT (PD406-1416).
 - a. Sign application in the presence of a supervisor who serves as a witness to the member's signature.
 - b. Submit CAREER PROGRAM APPLICATION FOR TRANSFER OF SERGEANT/LIEUTENANT to commanding officer.
 - c. Prepare an electronic application for transfer via Personal Online System for Transfers (P.O.S.T.).

NOTE

All sergeants and lieutenants seeking assignment to the Internal Affairs Bureau, Detective Bureau, Counterterrorism Bureau, or the Intelligence Bureau must complete at least one year in rank in a patrol assignment before being transferred. Uniformed members of the service may apply for such an assignment after six months in a patrol assignment, but they will not be eligible for transfer until the required year on patrol has been completed. All candidates must meet this one year obligation, except in unusual circumstances approved by the Police Commissioner, such as when the candidate possesses a special skill or expertise that is urgently needed by another bureau.

COMMANDING OFFICER

2. Review CAREER PROGRAM APPLICATION FOR TRANSFER OF SERGEANT/LIEUTENANT and complete "Commanding Officer's Recommendation" section.

ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDE

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:

COMMANDING OFFICER (continued) 3. Forward original to: Personnel Orders Division, One Police Plaza, Room 1010C, Attention: Supervisory Assignment Board, within seven days of receipt from member concerned.

PERSONNEL ORDERS DIVISION 4. Acknowledge CAREER PROGRAM APPLICATION FOR TRANSFER OF SERGEANT/LIEUTENANT was received by contacting uniformed member of the service via Department email or phone.
5. Schedule candidates to appear before the Supervisory Assignment Board.
6. Maintain pool of available candidates and make it available to bureau chief concerned.
a. Contact Commanding Officer of member concerned, if recommendation is not received within ten days.

SUPERVISORY ASSIGNMENT BOARD 7. Interview each candidate.
8. Determine eligibility of candidate for assignment.

ADDITIONAL DATA

After being approved by the Supervisory Assignment Board, a successful candidate may also be interviewed by an executive assigned to the Internal Affairs Bureau, Detective Bureau, Counterterrorism Bureau, or Intelligence Bureau. Each bureau may conduct its own screening process to determine a candidate's suitability for assignment to that particular bureau.

However, the Internal Affairs Bureau will have the first selection to fill its vacancies from among all supervisors approved by the Supervisory Assignment Board. A candidate must accept assignment to the Internal Affairs Bureau if selected.

Those individuals who are selected by the Internal Affairs Bureau will be expected to complete a minimum of two years with the Internal Affairs Bureau. After completion of two years, a supervisor who wishes to transfer to the Detective Bureau, or other specialized assignment (e.g., Intelligence Bureau, specialized patrol unit, etc.) may request transfer to the assignment of preference. This request will be made to the Chief of Personnel. All sergeants and lieutenants who have fulfilled their two year obligation in the Internal Affairs Bureau and who have requested reassignment will be given priority consideration for such an assignment.

If the Internal Affairs Bureau is unable to fill supervisory vacancies from the available pool of candidates, they may request volunteers from the Detective Bureau, Counterterrorism Bureau, or the Intelligence Bureau.

The Detective Bureau, Counterterrorism Bureau, and Intelligence Bureau will select new sergeants and lieutenants from:

- Those who have completed their two year commitment to the Internal Affairs Bureau and have requested an assignment to the Detective Bureau, Counterterrorism Bureau, or Intelligence Bureau.*
- Those who been approved by the Supervisory Assignment Board and have not been selected for assignment to the Internal Affairs Bureau.*

ADDITIONAL

The career path for sergeants and lieutenants will not prevent supervisors from requesting a transfer for other reasons utilizing the current transfer process (see A.G. 329-12, "Uniformed Members of the Service - Transfer Procedure"). All such requests will be considered on their individual merits, and on the needs of the Department. In addition, this program will not prevent this Department from making transfers to fill special needs or utilizing special talents of individual supervisors for specific assignments. The Department absolutely retains its managerial prerogatives. The Career Path does not limit or change this Department's right or managerial prerogatives to assign and promote police personnel.

PROCEDURE

When a work related fatality, injury or illness occurs:

MEMBER OF THE SERVICE

1. Notify supervisor promptly.
2. Report fatality, injury or illness as outlined in appropriate Patrol Guide or Administrative Guide procedures etc.

NOTE

To ensure that the Department notifies the New York State Department of Labor within the eight hour time limit required by law, a uniformed or civilian supervisor must immediately notify the Medical Division of any incident resulting in the death of one or more members or the hospitalization of two or more members.

COMMAND SAFETY OFFICER

3. Forward information concerning the work-related fatality, injury, or illness to command safety officer.
4. Ensure that the Log of Work-Related Injuries and Illnesses (SH 900) and the Injury and Illness Incident Report (SH 900-2) are prepared within seven calendar days of notification of a work-related fatality, injury, or illness.
5. Enter the phrase "privacy case" instead of the employee's name in column "B" of the SH 900 when member involved in the work-related injury/illness:
 - a. Requests that their name not be entered in the SH 900.
 - b. Is involved in an incident stemming from a sexual assault.
 - c. Sustains an injury to an intimate body part.
 - d. Is mentally ill.

7. Complete the SH 900-2.

- covered by the form at a conspicuous location in the command and keep it posted for three months until April 30.
10. Forward a copy of the SH 900-1 to bureau/borough/division Safety Coordinator.
 11. File SH 900, SH 900-1, and SH 900-2 in numerical order for each calendar year in a folder labeled "Public Employee Safety and Health (PESH) Act."
 12. Retain the records in the command for five calendar years following the end of the year to which they relate.

NOTE

If there is a change in the extent or outcome of a case entered in the SH 900, the entry should be lined out and a corrected entry made.

ADDITIONAL DATA

Commands must ensure that members are aware that they have to promptly report a work-related fatality, injury, or illness. No member who reports a work-related fatality, injury, or illness shall be discriminated or retaliated against.

Commands with subunits MUST prepare a separate SH900 and SH900-1 for each physical location that is expected to be in operation for one year or longer.

If at the end of the year, a member is still out on sick leave, an estimation of the number of additional days the member will be out sick will be made and used to calculate the member's total days lost for that year. When the member returns to work, correct the entry made as necessary. When counting the number of days away from work and/or job transfer or restriction, count the number of calendar days. Do not count the day on which the injury or illness occurred. Begin counting days from the day after the incident. When a physician or other licensed health care professional recommends that the member stay at home but they come to work anyway, the command must enter the number of calendar days away as recommended by the physician or other licensed health care professional. If a single injury/illness involved both days away and days of restricted work, enter the total number of days for each. "Cap" the total days away at 180 calendar days. It is not required to continue tracking the number of calendar days away from work if the injury or illness resulted in more than 180 calendar days away from work and/or days of job transfer or restriction.

The SH 900 includes employee information. The option of entering or not entering their name on SH 900, describes how the incident occurred, lists the objects or substances involved, and indicates the nature of the injury or illness and the part(s) of the body affected. Completed records must be present in the command within seven calendar days after the command has received information that an injury or illness has occurred. In addition, the name, title and contact number for the person who completed the SH900 is entered.

Even though there were no recordable cases during the previous year, the SH 900-1 must be completed and posted. If there was no work-related injury/illness, the section on Establishment Information should be filled out and zeros should be entered in all categories on the "totals" line.

All commands except Traffic Enforcement District should enter 9221 as their Standard Industrial Classification. Traffic Enforcement District and its subunits should enter 9621 as their Standard Industrial Classification. The SH900-1 must be certified by the highest ranking officer/supervisor of the command.

When a member of the service with an active entry on the SH 900 data is transferred, the entry will remain open and the transfer date recorded. The command safety officer of the original command will be responsible for contacting the member's new command at the end of the calendar year to obtain the number of additional days taken by the member for the same injury or illness.

The member's new command will record the transfer date and the additional days taken by the member, and at the end of the year, will supply the previous command with the information regarding the number of days lost.

If a fatality, injury or illness is sustained while a member of the service is temporarily assigned, it will be recorded at the member's temporary command.

For members whose payroll or personnel records are maintained at a fixed location, but they do not work at a single location, the SH 900 should be maintained at the location from which they are paid.

More detailed information on report of work-related fatalities, injuries and illnesses is available in the "Recording and Reporting Public Employees' Work-Related Injuries and Illnesses" training manual prepared by the Occupational Safety and Health Section.

PESH folders are to be available for inspection by representatives from the New York State Department of Labor, representatives of the Secretary of Labor, Secretary of Health and Human Services or NIOSH. When these authorized government representatives ask for the SH 900, the SH 900-1, or the SH 900-2 while conducting an investigation or inspection, the command must provide copies of the records within four business hours.

Our members, former members, authorized collective bargaining representatives, and their personal representatives (any person designated in writing, or a legal representative), have the right to access injury and illness records. When a member, former member, authorized representative, or personal representative asks for copies of the current or filed SH 900 where the member has worked, they must be given a copy of the SH900(s) by the end of the next business day. When a member or personal representative asks for a copy of the SH 900-2 describing an injury or illness to that member, they must be given a copy of the SH 900-2 containing that information by the end of the next business day. When an authorized representative asks for copies of the SH 900-2 for a command where the agent represents members under a collective bargaining agreement, they must be given copies of all forms within seven calendar days. Commands are required to give only the information from the SH 900-2 section titled "Information about the case." All other information must be removed from the copy of the SH 900-2 that are given to the authorized employee representative.

As to any disclosure other than that specified above, since this information would likely be considered medical records under the Americans with Disabilities Act, it must be handled and maintained in a confidential manner.

Special days of the year are randomly sampled by Bureau of Labor Statistics annually for further statistical analysis. If any work-related injuries and illnesses with days away from work occurred on the selected days, a Case With Days Away From Work (DOSH) form has to be filled out for each of the sampled cases and forwarded to the Occupational Safety and Health Section together with a copy of the SH 900-1. Such sampling and reports required will be the subject of an Operations Order each year.

PURPOSE

To provide instructions and minimize risk to members of the service (uniformed and civilian) who have contact with, or handle, an animal or person who may have an infectious disease, or who have contact with or handle hazardous materials.

DEFINITIONS

INFECTIOUS DISEASE - as used in this procedure, includes diseases capable of being transmitted by contact with an infected animal's saliva or central nervous system tissue, or with an infected individual's blood or body fluids.

HAZARDOUS MATERIAL - as used in this procedure, includes any chemical, biological, or radiological substance which is a health hazard. Chemical health hazards include carcinogens, toxic agents, irritants, corrosives, or agents which damage the lungs, skin, eyes, or mucous membranes, etc. Chemical physical hazards include flammable or combustible liquids, compressed gas, or explosive or reactive substances, etc.

EXPOSURE TO AN INFECTIOUS DISEASE - as used in this procedure, includes those situations where a member of the service is exposed by airborne transmission or direct contact to an individual suspected of having a disease, or where a member comes in contact with the blood or body fluids of an individual suspected of having an infectious disease, or, where a member of the service is injured as the result of a human or animal bite, or hypodermic needle puncture, or other contaminated sharp instrument, or where a member of the service is exposed to an animal suspected of having an infectious disease, or where a member comes in contact with the saliva or central nervous system tissue of an animal suspected of having an infectious disease.

EXPOSURE TO A HAZARDOUS MATERIAL - as used in this procedure, includes those situations where a member of the service is exposed to a hazardous material whether through inhalation, ingestion, skin contact, or parenteral contact.

UNIVERSAL PRECAUTIONS - as used in this procedure, is an approach to infection control. According to this approach, all human blood and certain body fluids are to be treated as if they are known to be infectious for human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), hepatitis B virus (HBV), or other bloodborne pathogens; and in addition, all animal saliva and central nervous system tissue are to be treated as if they are known to be infectious for rabies. All efforts to avoid contact with these potentially infectious materials should be taken as well as utilizing whatever protective equipment is available.

NOTE

To avoid unnecessary exposure, control of the aided/collision victim, or prisoner will be assigned to an officer at the scene who has already had contact with a person suspected of having an infectious disease. The assigned officer will be responsible for completing the processing of the individual. If there are numerous individuals involved, the patrol supervisor at the scene will be responsible for the coordination of information and documenting the name, etc., of the members of the service involved.

PROCEDURE

MEMBER OF THE SERVICE

1. Comply with guidelines listed in “ADDITIONAL DATA” statement of this procedure, when possible.

NOTE

When exposure involves an actual injury, the member of the service concerned will be transported to the hospital for treatment and A.G. 330-03, “Line Of Duty Injury Or Death” will be complied with, as appropriate. When exposure does not involve an actual injury and the exposure is related to tuberculosis, the member of the service concerned should consider this Department’s offer of Mantoux (PPD) skin testing which is free of charge. When tested and the results are positive, notify Unit Safety Officer to initiate entry on State of New York - Department of Labor Log and Summary of Occupational Injuries and Illnesses (DOSH 900). Tuberculosis infection and tuberculosis disease are both recordable on DOSH 900 logs. A code (e.g., maiden name pseudonym) may be used to substitute for the description of injury or illness (column [F]).

DESK OFFICER

specific infectious disease when a victim of an emergency who was aided by the emergency response employee was transported to a medical facility. If it is determined that the emergency response employee may have been exposed to an infectious disease, a signed written request, along with the facts collected, must be sent by the designated officer to the medical facility to which the victim (or patient), i.e., aided or prisoner, was transported. After receiving a notification from the medical facility, to the extent practicable, the designated officer must immediately notify the member or members concerned. Whenever the designated officer discloses information related to Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) to an emergency response employee, redisclosure by the emergency response employee is prohibited when not in conformance with state law.

8. Make digital Activity Log entry of facts involved.
 - a. Include Exposure Report number.

EXPOSURE TO INFECTIOUS DISEASES GUIDELINES

ADDITIONAL
DATA

- a. Confer with Emergency Medical Service personnel, the individual's family, friends, neighbors, doctor, or appropriate agency as to the source individual's medical conditions, when circumstances permit.
- b. Wear disposable gloves if contact with individual's blood or body fluids is a possibility; and if a member who is routinely engaged in the capture or seizure of suspected rabid animals, wear heavy duty disposable rubber gloves if contact with animal's saliva or central nervous system tissue is a possibility.
- c. Wash hands with soap and water (disinfectant soap, if possible), after removing disposable gloves. Glove kits containing antiseptic wipes, gloves, and disposable bag should be used when hand-washing facilities are not available.
- d. Immediately and thoroughly wash hands or other unprotected body parts if they come in contact with individual's blood or body fluids, or if bitten, scratched, abraded, by an animal, or if there is contact between the member and the animal's saliva or nervous system tissue. Use disinfectant soap, if possible.
- e. Remove and machine wash (hot cycle), or have dry cleaned, as soon as possible, any part of uniform/civilian clothes that come in contact with an individual's blood or body fluids and promptly clean any equipment other than that made of fabric.
- f. Use extraordinary care to avoid accidental puncture wounds from needles which may be contaminated with potentially infectious material.
- g. Affix Biohazard Label to any property, evidence, or waste which may be contaminated.

ACCIDENTAL SPILLS OF BLOOD OR BODY FLUIDS.

A supply of household bleach will be maintained at all precinct/PSA/transit district commands, emergency service units, borough court section facilities, and other appropriate sites. Accidental spills of blood or body fluids on floors, cells, RMP's or on other surfaces, other than clothing, or fabric may be cleaned by applying a FRESHLY MIXED solution of one part household bleach with ten parts water. It is imperative that the preceding mixture be carefully followed. Household bleach is not to be mixed with any solution other than water and it must be freshly mixed for each use.

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:
330-09	11/18/21	I.O. 99	4 of 4

ADDITIONAL

Members of the service (uniformed and civilian) are reminded that this mixture of bleach and water will cause damage if used to clean uniforms. Uniform items soiled with blood or body fluids can be effectively cleaned by routine laundering or dry cleaning procedures. Bleach should not be used to cleanse hands. In addition, bleach mixed with any substance other than water may cause a toxic gas. Therefore, disposal of bleach or bleach dilutions should be performed only in a sink (not a urinal or toilet since they sometimes contain chemical deodorizers). When preparing a bleach dilution, the container used for the diluted solution must be cleaned with water and free of any other solution.

To prevent injury/infection when handling or forwarding hypodermic needles/syringes to the Property Clerk, members of the service will place such items in a hypodermic needle/syringe container by utilizing a one-handed "scoop" technique which uses the needle itself to pick up the hypodermic needle/syringe container. By using one hand to hold the hypodermic syringe while moving the hypodermic needle toward the hypodermic needle/syringe container, the member of the service is moving the needle away from themselves. Members should not hold the container and move their hand toward the needle. The container will be capped, if possible. However, if the syringe extends beyond the container, it will be secured with tape. Under no circumstances should a member of the service attempt to remove, dislodge, or bend a needle from a hypodermic syringe.

10. Commence sick leave for pregnant uniformed member of the service approximately four weeks before the expected date of delivery.
11. Terminate sick leave approximately twelve weeks following delivery.

Additionally, when required to see the Pregnancy Medical District Surgeon, pregnant uniformed member of the service will be seen in a separate area or at a separate time to avoid possible exposure to illness.

ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDE

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:
330-10	11/18/21	I.O. 99	3 of 3

ADDITIONAL

Once electing position limitation status, the uniformed member of the service may be reassigned to another command that performs non-enforcement duties (e.g., the Medical Division, etc.), or they may remain within their permanent command depending upon the needs of the Department. Pregnant uniformed members of the service who require additional pregnancy-related accommodations should contact the Pregnancy Medical District Surgeon or the Equal Employment Opportunity Division.

Recurring pregnancy related illness will be counted as one sick report, if the member provides proper documentation from their private physician and with the approval of the Pregnancy Medical District Surgeon. Repeated “undocumented” and “unapproved” sick leaves can lead to a “chronic sick” designation. The following conditions, if minor, will not automatically be valid reasons for pregnancy related absence:

- a. Nausea (morning sickness)*
- b. Lower back pain*
- c. Mild leg swelling*
- d. Fatigue*
- e. Other conditions limited to a few days duration.*

The above listed conditions are considered by the medical profession to be a normal part of pregnancy. If a member of the service reports sick for these minor conditions, the sick report will not be valid for consolidation as an absence related to pregnancy illness.

A pass may be granted, if the Pregnancy Medical District Surgeon determines that the issuance of such a pass would not adversely affect the member’s health. The pre-delivery pass becomes void after hospitalization.

Pregnancy alone does not preclude a uniformed member of the service from being promoted. Pregnant uniformed members of the service, as well as members on restricted duty/limited capacity who are assigned to “Investigative Track Units,” may appeal any deductions of investigative time earned while on position limitation status, if they were performing normal investigative duties during that time period (see [A.G. 329-12, “Promotion to Third Grade Detective \[Investigator\]”](#)).

Pregnant uniformed members of the service, when appropriate, may wear business attire and display their IDENTIFICATION CARD (PD416-091) on their outermost garment. Proper business attire will conform with that worn to other official appearances, such as post-arraignment court appearances, professional career interview, etc.

When a pregnant uniformed member of the service is required to appear in court, before a Grand Jury or other government agency, business attire or uniform may be worn.

Pregnant uniformed members of the service are not required to attend the Firearms and Tactics qualification cycles.

AUTHORIZATION TO SAFEGUARD FIREARMS AT MEMBER'S COMMAND DUE TO A CURRENT PERSONAL PROBLEM

When a member believes that possession of firearms, during off-duty hours, could further aggravate a current personal problem, (e.g. potential domestic violence accusations), the member concerned may request that their firearms be safeguarded at the command. The desk officer must make a Command Log entry each tour the member elects to safeguard his/her firearms. The entry will indicate the date, time, rank, name and tax registry number of the member making the request, and the serial numbers of all firearms being safeguarded. An entry concerning the justification for this type of request is not required. A notification in the margin of the original entry will also be made indicating the date and time the firearms were returned to the member. The member will continue to perform full duty according to the normal duty chart or work schedule. At the conclusion of each tour the member may deliver their firearms to the desk officer until the personal problem is rectified.

COUNSELING SERVICES UNIT

PURPOSE

To ensure that all members of the service are informed about the Counseling Services Unit.

DEPARTMENT COUNSELING GUIDELINES

SCOPE

The primary function of the Counseling Services Unit is to assist in the recovery and return to full and productive service those members of the service who are experiencing difficulties with alcohol, prescription medication, gambling or finances. The Department's objective, at all levels, is the early detection and referral of its personnel for evaluation and treatment, either as a self-referral or through a direct supervisory referral. The Counseling Services Unit is not a disciplinary unit, nor a sanctuary for misconduct. To afford confidentiality to members of the service who utilize this program, the Counseling Services Unit is located in a non-Department facility with business hours Monday through Friday, between 0700-1800 hours. During non-business hours the Counseling Services Unit may be contacted through the Sick Desk Supervisor.

Alcoholism is a primary, chronic disease with genetic, psychosocial and environmental factors influencing its development and manifestations. Untreated, the disease is often progressive and fatal. It is characterized by continuous or periodic impaired control over drinking, preoccupation with the drug alcohol, use of alcohol despite adverse consequences, and distortions in thinking, most notably denial. Alcoholism is a fully treatable disease, especially when intervention occurs in the early stages. Self-referral, before the condition results in personal tragedy or misconduct, is ideal. However, it must be emphasized that denial and cover-up are inherent components of this disease. Therefore, supervisors are a vital link to the process of early detection, referral, treatment and recovery. A supervisor may contact the Counseling Services Unit and request that a member be evaluated.

Federal law and regulations governing confidentiality prohibit disclosure of any information or record pertaining to substance abuse treatment. The Counseling Services Unit may not disclose any information that identifies a member as a participant except under the following circumstances:

- a. Written consent from the member concerned
- b. Valid subpoena and U.S. District Court Order
- c. Suspected child abuse
- d. Danger to self or another

ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDE

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:

Records maintained by the Counseling Services Unit are absolutely confidential and not duplicated or forwarded anywhere within the Department. In non-disciplinary cases, when a supervisor officially refers a member, no report will be prepared and no record of the referral will be noted in the member's personnel folder. Supervisors making referrals will only be advised as to the level of cooperation and only on a need to know basis.

Members participating in this program will not jeopardize their promotional opportunities. In addition, their current assignments will not ordinarily be changed because of their participation in this program unless, due to the nature of the assignment, a change is deemed to be in the best interests of all parties concerned. However, participation in this program will not exempt a member of the service from disciplinary action for specific acts of misconduct and the consequences of such disciplinary action.

The services of the Counseling Services Unit are NOT available to members of the service for illegal drug use. All members of the service are mandated by provisions of “Drug Screening Tests for Cause for Uniformed and Civilian Members of the Service,” \(A.G. 332-06\) to immediately notify the Internal Affairs Bureau Command Center when illegal drug/controlled substance usage is suspected.

Prior to final adjudication of a disciplinary matter, in all misconduct cases in which the use of alcohol and/or domestic violence is indicated, a conferral with the Employee Assistance Unit must be made, and an assessment and/or referral by the Counseling Services Unit must be conducted. The Department Advocate's Office will ensure that these steps are taken.

11. Make periodic inquiries to the therapy provider during the course of treatments to ensure member is properly attending therapy.

COMMAND LEVEL PEER SUPPORT

1. Command level peer support ensures that trained peers (uniformed members of the service of any rank and civilians of any title) in commands are available to assist and proactively check in with fellow members of the service experiencing stressful or difficult moments in their professional or personal lives by asking, listening, encouraging, and following up. Command level peer support is independent from similar Department units and personnel, including those that offer peer and crisis support (e.g., Employee Assistance Unit, Chaplains Unit, Psychological Evaluation Section, etc.). As such, it serves as an additional resource for members of the service, and it is not intended to replace any of the existing support services.

2. Peer support members help to bridge the gap by connecting those in need with both internal and external mental health resources. Peer support members are command level, readily available, and able to offer a co-worker confidential, informal support and guidance. The peer support member is guided by the “Ask, Listen, Encourage, and Follow Up” guidelines:

- a. Ask: The peer support member engages the person by asking questions in a private, informal setting to gather a greater understanding of the issues the person is experiencing,
- b. Listen: The peer support member utilizes active listening skills to demonstrate empathy, build rapport, and de-escalate negative emotions the person is experiencing. In addition, the peer support member does not judge, minimize, or tell the person what to do. Rather, the peer support member helps the person develop the best, positive course of action,
- c. Encourage: When appropriate, the peer support member provides guidance on available internal and external resources, and encourages the person to seek further assistance, and
- d. Follow Up: The peer support member follows up in the near future to see how the person is doing, if the support options (if offered) were used and were helpful, and if necessary, helps the person to explore other options.

3. Peer support members must work collectively with command training staff to ensure there is clear and consistent messaging regarding member health and wellness. If a peer support member is unavailable, the person/unit requesting may contact the Employee Assistance Unit via telephone at (646) 610-6730, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for assistance. Communications between a peer support member and a member of the service must be treated as confidential, except for matters that involve:

- a. Harm to self or others, and/or
- b. Serious misconduct or crimes.

ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDE

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:
330-21	11/18/21	I.O. 110	2 of 2

4. Any member of the service in good standing may apply to become a peer support member and will undergo a selection process. Peer support members serve on a voluntary basis, while maintaining their current positions and continually share information on mental and physical health, mental illness, suicide prevention, creating and maintaining resilience, handling the potential stigma associated with seeking help and/or treatment, and other related resources. Peer support members must have an interest in supporting others and must attend initial training and periodic refresher training from the Department while on-duty. Members of the service may also choose to end their participation as peer support members at any time, with or without prior notice, by notifying the Commanding Officer, Health and Wellness Section via Department email.

5. Commanding officers are responsible for ensuring that peer support members are provided with adequate resources to appropriately disseminate information pertinent to member health and well-being. In addition, commanding officers and supervisors may not make adverse personnel decisions against a peer support member (e.g., tour changes, denial of transfer, etc.) based solely on their participation as a peer support member.

6. The Health and Wellness Section provides administrative support and questions should be directed to the Commanding Officer, Health and Wellness Section via email at wellness@nypd.org or via telephone at (646) 610-4862.

Procedure No: 330-22

CRITICAL INCIDENT STRESS MANAGEMENT

DATE EFFECTIVE:

11/18/21

LAST REVISION:

I.O. 110

PAGE:

1 of 4

PURPOSE

To ensure members of the service who are involved in critical, traumatic, or high stress incidents receive proper stress management support, mental health education, and guidance.

SCOPE

Members of the service who can benefit from prevention and early intervention following a critical and/or traumatic incident are encouraged to use all of the Department's available resources. The Department has implemented a critical incident stress management program that is administered by the Health and Wellness Section. In addition, ongoing support will be provided in a confidential environment by a Health and Wellness Section qualified mental health professional (QMHP), including peer support counselors from the Employee Assistance Unit (EAU). The program is supplemental to, and not intended to replace, the psychological services the Department currently provides under the auspices of the Medical Division.

DEFINITIONS

Critical Incident: For the purpose of this procedure, is an unusually challenging event that has the potential to create significant human distress and interfere with one's normal coping mechanisms.

Traumatic Incident: A mentally and emotionally distressing event that has the potential to overwhelm an individual's normal stress-coping mechanisms. A traumatic incident is defined by an individual's unique reaction to that event, not necessarily by the external magnitude of the event. This event may or may not be life-threatening.

Involved Member of the Service: Any individual that was directly or indirectly involved in the critical incident. This definition was expanded in an effort to recognize the prevalence of vicarious trauma in law enforcement work and provide involved members of the service with proper stress management support, mental health education, and guidance.

Qualified Mental Health Professional (QMHP): A licensed psychologist, licensed social worker, or licensed mental health counselor.

Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM): A formal, comprehensive, integrated, systematic, crisis intervention approach to manage critical incident stress after critical and/or traumatic incidents to promote healthy functioning and recovery. This approach involves coordinated supportive tactics that provide individual and group support, stress education, and coping strategies.

ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDE

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:

DEFINITIONS (continued)

Critical Incident Stress Management Debriefing: A mandatory confidential group discussion conducted by a QMHP and an EAU peer counselor that is designed to help members of the service achieve healthy recovery and functioning after involvement in a critical and/or traumatic incident. It aims at reduction of stress and to promote group cohesion. This process does not constitute any form of psychotherapy and it should never be utilized as a substitute for psychotherapy. This is not a stand-alone process. It will be provided along with crisis support services that may include pre-incident education, crisis management briefing, defusing, individual crisis intervention/wellness check-in, referrals for ongoing professional care, if indicated, and post incident support and psychoeducation.

Individual Critical Incident Stress Management Wellness Check: An individual appointment with a QMHP that is offered to all members of the service approximately one month after the critical incident stress management group debriefing. This voluntary follow up is part of the critical incident stress management continuum to provide additional crisis intervention support, referral assistance, and further psychoeducation or other resources as needed.

Crisis Management Briefing (CMB): A structured group meeting designed to provide information about the event, identify leadership support, educate about typical stress reactions, offer information regarding basic stress management, coping strategies and resources. This process typically starts with an introduction conducted by command leadership, fact phase, reaction phase, and teaching. This meeting may involve participation by command leadership, a QMHP, EAU peer counselor, and, if available, a member of the Chaplains Unit.

Critical Incident Stress Management Defusing: A confidential meeting to review the critical incident, and an overview of self-care strategies to enhance the healing process, promote resiliency and wellness. A defusing may be conducted by a QMHP and/or EAU peer counselor, and/or members of the Chaplains Unit. A defusing is typically conducted at the involved command immediately following a critical event.

PROCEDURE

When a critical incident has been identified by the health and wellness critical incident coordinator, director, or other member of the service:

HEALTH AND WELLNESS CRITICAL INCIDENT COORDINATOR OR DESIGNEE

1. Review incident details, identify involved member of the service, and notify the operations coordinator at member's command to schedule debriefing.

No information related to the debriefing, or other service, shall be conveyed to other members of the service, including members of the service assigned to disciplinary and/or investigative units, other than attendance records. Participation will in no way jeopardize the member of the service's job security, promotional opportunities, and/or career potential. The debriefing process is not a critique of any actions taken by the member of the service, but rather, it is an attempt to alleviate elevated levels of anxiety and/or emotional distress that a member of the service may be experiencing in response to a critical and/or a traumatic incident.*

- HEALTH AND WELLNESS TEAM
4. Provide outreach to member of the service, approximately one month from the date of the group debriefing, to offer additional support and resources.

ADDITIONAL

The services provided by the Health and Wellness Section are designed to be preventative in nature. The Health and Wellness Section proactively seeks to identify members of the service who are involved in critical and/or traumatic incidents. However, individual reactions to adverse incidents are often best assessed by command level personnel who have intimate, firsthand knowledge of the specific details of the incident and the members of the service involved. Therefore, any supervisor may refer a member of the service who they believe has been exposed to a critical and/or traumatic incident to the Health and Wellness Section by calling (646) 610-4862. In addition, if a member of the service feels they may benefit from critical incident stress management, the member may call the Health and Wellness Section for further support and/or follow up.

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE UNIT

1. The Employee Assistance Unit (EAU) is the Department's primary resource for peer support. EAU is comprised of uniformed and civilian members of the service in various ranks and titles who have undergone specialized training/education in peer support, suicide prevention and education, and critical incident response. EAU assists members of the service with problems that may be causing concern, either at work or within their personal lives, and are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, via telephone or in person. EAU peer counselors are not mental health practitioners and they are not intended to replace professional mental health counseling.

2. EAU serves to support members of the service who may be directly involved in an on or off duty critical incident. For the purpose of this procedure, a "Critical Incident" is defined as an unusually challenging event that has the potential to create significant human distress and interfere with one's normal coping mechanisms. In the event of a critical incident, any supervisory member of the service may request the immediate response of EAU to provide peer support and post-critical incident stress management. When an immediate response by EAU is necessary, EAU can be reached directly via phone at (646) 610-6730. A critical incident may include, but is not limited to, the following events:

- a. Suicide or line of duty death of a member of the service,
- b. Serious line of duty injury to a member of the service,
- c. Officer involved shooting (including an accidental discharge that results in an injury),
- d. Significant event involving children,
- e. Any mass casualty incident or natural disaster, and/or
- f. Any incident in which the circumstances are unusual or distressing, and that witnessing or participating in the event is likely to produce a significant emotional reaction.

3. EAU accepts referrals made by supervisors, coworkers, friends and family members. A supervisory referral to EAU does not relieve supervisory members of the service of their obligations, which are outlined elsewhere in the Department Manual. In addition, members of the service may seek peer assistance for themselves or someone else, and they may remain anonymous. Referrals should be made as a preemptive measure when a member of the service is experiencing stress and/or may benefit from peer assistance or appropriate professional referrals. EAU is not part of the disciplinary process or any investigative unit within the Department, and referrals will not be accepted for the purpose of disciplinary action.

4. Members of the service should be aware of behavioral indicators that suggest personal stress. Those who observe behavioral indicators may consult with EAU, or they may remain anonymous and refer a member of the service to EAU. Such indicators include, but are not limited to:

5. EAU does not maintain any records detailing information shared during peer support interactions, and will not disclose the content of conversations or interactions with peer counselors to the member of the service's command, supervisor, or other Department units/personnel. Exceptions to confidentiality include:

- a. A member of the service who is a danger to themselves or others,

ADDITIONAL DATA

A uniformed or civilian member of the service who is absent for either the majority or the entirety of a rating period due to military service is still entitled to receive a PERFORMANCE EVALUATION. Pursuant to New York State Military Law, to compute the rating for such a member, raters are to take the average of the three PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS that the member received prior to their absence for military duty. However, the credited rating must not be less than satisfactory (3.0) or less than the rating that the member received for the period immediately prior to their absence for military service. In the "Overall Rater's Comments:" caption the rater will note the length of time the member was on military duty during the evaluation period and that the evaluation is being prepared pursuant to New York State Military Law. Additional questions concerning evaluations of members of the service absent from their positions due to military service may be directed to either the Performance Analysis Section or the Legal Bureau.

Probationary members of the service do not receive annual PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS. An annual PERFORMANCE EVALUATION will be prepared during the next rating period after a member attains permanent rank.

Uniformed members of the service who are in rank on probation (e.g., entry-level probationary police officers, probationary sergeants, etc.) and civilian members of the service who have not completed their probationary period or have served less than two years in a provisional status are not permitted to appeal their PERFORMANCE EVALUATION.

All newly promoted sergeants, lieutenants and captains are on probation in rank for a period of twelve months unless cause exists to extend such period for an additional six months. Extension of probation beyond twelve months may be authorized on a case-by-case basis.

An extension of probation for newly promoted sergeants, lieutenants, and captains may be requested after six months. This request must be made by the probationary member's commanding officer and accompanied by the fourth month PERFORMANCE EVALUATION. All requests are to be forwarded through channels to the Deputy Commissioner, Risk Management.

Members of the service are reminded that appraisal of subordinates' performance is a continuous process. The use of an annual evaluation system DOES NOT relieve supervisors of their responsibility to monitor and document subordinates' performance throughout the rating period. The "Evaluations Due" web page provides a roster of annual and probationary PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS that are due for specific personnel. Certain commands are required to provide additional PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS (i.e., investigative track commands and requests due to monitoring). The Online Evaluation System does not preclude commands from providing additional PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS when necessary.

When preparing a PERFORMANCE EVALUATION, the rater will take into account the ratee's performance concerning equal employment opportunity (EEO) issues. EEO factors having a bearing on the rating in that category will include, but not be limited to, whether the member has engaged in conduct that violates provisions of the Department Manual, Title VII, other applicable equal employment opportunity laws, or the Department's equal employment opportunity policy.

In addition, raters will ensure that recognition is given to members who utilize their language proficiency for translation and interpretation in the performance of their regular duties, or as part of the volunteer language initiative. The use of this skill shall be afforded the same recognition as any other special skill needed by the Department. Any experience gained while serving as a translator/interpreter in criminal investigations will be included in the Overall Rater's Comments of the PERFORMANCE EVALUATION. Commanding officers will ensure that evaluations of volunteer members are not negatively affected by their assignment to translation/interpretation duties. These tasks shall be evaluated as a proportionate part of their assigned duties.

A uniformed or civilian member of the service who is absent for either the majority or the entirety of a rating period due to military service is still entitled to receive a PERFORMANCE EVALUATION. Additional questions concerning evaluations of members of the service absent from their positions due to military service may be directed to either the Performance Analysis Section or the Legal Bureau.

When a sub-managerial civilian member is transferred, the commanding officer/supervisory head will direct that the PERFORMANCE EVALUATION is completed online and the form is forwarded to the Employee Resources Section and to the new command. The ratee will be given a copy of the form. The immediate supervisor in the new command will prepare a new Task and Standards of the ratee's new assignment via the Online Evaluation System.

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	LAST REVISION:	PAGE:
331-02	11/18/21	I.O. 99	2 of 2

ADDITIONAL DATA

The probationary period should be utilized to closely scrutinize the member's performance to assess their abilities as a police officer. The entry level probationary period may be extended an additional six months, if necessary, to allow the Department more time to further review and evaluate a probationer's suitability to remain a police officer. When a probationary officer is transferred to a command, their performance from the previous command must be reviewed. Interim evaluations should be prepared when it is apparent there is a problem with an officer's performance. The rater will discuss the probationary evaluation with the ratee. This will make the probationary officer aware of their performance and also place those probationary officers with a 'below standards' evaluation on notice that their performance must show an improvement. When a commanding officer becomes aware that a probationary officer's performance may be below standards, supervisors should be instructed to carefully document the member's performance by utilizing the SUPERVISOR FEEDBACK FORM, command discipline, and when appropriate, charges and specifications. The probationer will be notified of the observed performance deficiencies and instructed on proper Department procedure. Written documentation that the probationer was instructed and counseled will be maintained in the officer's personnel folder.

If the performance of the "Category B" investigator is rated higher than "Low", the rater must demonstrate how the performance was achieved in spite of the absence record of the investigator. In all cases, the rater must state if the ratee should remain in the investigative assignment. A uniformed or civilian member of the service who is absent for either the majority or the entirety of a rating period due to military service is still entitled to receive a PERFORMANCE EVALUATION. Pursuant to New York State Military Law, to compute the rating for such a member, raters are to take the average of the three PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS that the member received prior to his/her absence for military duty. However, the credited rating must not be less than satisfactory (3.0) or less than the rating that the member received for the period immediately prior to his/her absence for military service. In the "Overall Rater's Comments:" caption the rater will note the length of time the member was on military duty during the evaluation period and that the evaluation is being prepared pursuant to New York State Military Law. Additional questions concerning evaluations of members of the service absent from their positions due to military service may be directed to either the Performance Analysis Section or the Legal Bureau.

EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION

PURPOSE

To process and resolve all complaints of employment discrimination and/or related retaliation made against Department employees and applicants.

SCOPE

Employees and applicants for employment who have a complaint of employment discrimination, including related retaliation, or have any questions regarding these issues, are urged to contact the Equal Employment Opportunity Division (EEO). It is the goal of this Department that the effective use of this procedure will result in an equitable resolution of the complaint and prevent any discriminatory practice from harming other employees or applicants. Uniformed and civilian supervisors and managers are directed to make all employment decisions in accordance with the Department's Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) policy. Uniformed and civilian supervisors and managers, and EEO Liaisons must report allegations or complaints of employment discrimination and retaliation, and any observations of conduct of a discriminatory or retaliatory nature.

Federal, State and/or City laws and/or Department policy prohibit employment discrimination based on actual or perceived status of a person's race, color, national origin, alienage or citizenship status, religion or creed, gender (including gender identity - which refers to a person's actual or perceived sex, and includes self-image, appearance, behavior or expression, whether or not different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to the person at birth), pregnancy and pregnancy related conditions, sexual and reproductive health decisions (e.g., fertility-related medical procedures, sexually transmitted disease prevention, testing and treatment, family planning services and counseling, such as birth control drugs and supplies, emergency contraception, sterilization procedures, pregnancy testing and abortion), disability, age, military status and uniformed service, unemployment status, consumer credit history (for certain titles), salary history, familial status (parent or guardian of a person under 18 years of age who is living with them), caregiver status (person who provides ongoing care for a minor child or relative with a disability), prior record of arrest or conviction (under some circumstances), marital status, partnership status, genetic information or predisposing genetic characteristic, sexual orientation, or status as a victim of domestic violence, stalking or sexual offenses and as follows:

- b. Sexual harassment against New York City Police Department employees, applicants and any non-employee who is a contractor, subcontractor, vendor, consultant, freelancer or other person providing services pursuant to a contract in the workplace or who is an employee of such contractor, subcontractor, vendor, consultant, freelancer or other person providing services pursuant to a contract in the workplace

- c. Policy that has a disproportionate impact on a group specifically protected by law, unless the policy is justified by business necessity
- d. Failure to make a reasonable accommodation for or failure to timely engage in cooperative dialogue with individuals with disabilities, religious observances/practices, those who are pregnant, recovering from childbirth or a related medical condition, and victims of domestic violence, stalking and/or sexual offenses. An accommodation may not be required if such accommodation would impose undue hardship on the Department, but a cooperative dialogue must still occur
- e. Discriminatory harassment, intimidation, ridicule and insults, including, but not limited to, using discourteous, disparaging or disrespectful remarks
- f. Retaliation and/or harassment against an employee, applicant and any non-employee who is a contractor, subcontractor, vendor, consultant, freelancer or other person providing services pursuant to a contract in the workplace or an employee of the same, for filing a discrimination complaint, participating in an investigation of a complaint, commencing a civil action based on unlawful discrimination or requesting a reasonable accommodation.

All forms of employment discrimination, including retaliation, are PROHIBITED both in the actual workplace and in any location that can be reasonably regarded as an extension of the workplace, such as an off-site Department sanctioned social function.

Employees and applicants should file a complaint with the EEO at the earliest opportunity if the employee or applicant believes that a uniformed or civilian supervisor, manager or any other employee has engaged in any of the conduct described above.

NOTE

A complaint made in good faith will not be considered a false accusation. Knowingly making a false accusation of discrimination or knowingly providing false information during the course of an investigation of a complaint may be grounds for discipline.

At least one or more trained EEO Liaisons must be designated in every command throughout the Department to provide assistance to complainants, witnesses and others regarding any EEO matter. EEO Liaisons are non-supervisory members of the service who serve voluntarily with the recommendation of their Commanding Officer and approval of the DCEI. During a period of suspension without pay or vacation/terminal leave pending retirement, the member concerned remains officially a member of the service and, as such, may NOT engage in any type of employment or activity which, by existing law, is prohibited to police officers, or which may constitute a conflict of interest or create the appearance thereof (see GENERAL PROHIBITIONS).
- c. Excessive sick leave or other evidence indicating off duty employment impairs ability to perform assigned police duties is cause for revocation of approval to engage in off duty employment.
- d. A request for permission to work while off duty may be disapproved even though it does not specifically fall within the "Prohibitions" section or violate the "Guidelines" sections contained herein.
- e. A uniformed member of the service seeking part time employment in another City agency, or in ANY other governmental jurisdiction or agency MUST prepare Certification of Compatibility for Dual Employment (a Certification of Compatibility for Dual Employment (DP1021A) for City Mayoral Agencies or Certification of Compatibility for Dual Employment (DP1021B) for all other governmental agencies or jurisdictions). These forms are available at the Human Resources Division, Employee Resources Section, who will process forms upon completion.
- f. Uniformed members of the service engaging in or seeking off duty employment are reminded that the law prohibits certain types of employment. Some members while engaging in bona-fide occupations, may unknowingly, in the normal pursuit of their particular off duty occupation, be violating one of these statutes. Members may consult with Legal Bureau.
- g. Section 2604(a)(1) of the New York City Charter prohibits public servants from taking a position in a firm which the public servant knows, or should know, is engaged in business dealings with the City. "Position" is broadly defined and includes an officer, director, manager, employee, trustee, attorney, agent, broker or consultant to the firm. The definition of "firm" includes an individual seeking business on their own behalf, and as a sole proprietor. "Business dealings" are defined as any transactions involving the sale, purchase, rental, or disposition of any goods, services, or property; any license, permit, grant or benefit; and any performance of or litigation with respect to any of the above. It is quite possible that a member not completely familiar with these provisions could find themselves in violation of the law. For example, if a

- h. The Charter prohibits members from engaging in any business, transaction or private employment which is in conflict with the proper discharge of their official duties; using, or attempting to use their position to obtain any financial gain, or other benefit, including employment for themselves or any person "associated" with them ("associated" is defined to include a spouse, domestic partner, child, parent or sibling and a person with whom a member has a business or financial relationship); and disclosing any confidential information which is obtained as a result of a member's official duties or using such confidential information for any financial gain or other benefit.*
 - i. A uniformed member of the service is prohibited from holding any position or engaging in business dealings which involve the manufacture, sale or recommendation of any alcoholic beverage. However, employment is permitted in a premises licensed to sell beer at retail for off-premises consumption (supermarkets and grocery stores). Also see A.G. 304-06, "Prohibited Conduct."*
 - j. A member may not accept any valuable gift from any person or firm which the member knows or should know, has or intends to have business dealings with the City.*
 - k. Uniformed members of the service may write fiction or non-fiction books and articles on their own time and receive compensation provided that the restrictions contained in P.G. 212-76, "Information Concerning Official Business of Department" are adhered to. APPLICATION/NOTIFICATION should be submitted in this regard to the extent that members of the service are being paid for their writing.*
 - l. A member of the service may be employed as technical or background advisor/consultants by television and film production companies. The consulting position may relate either to a particular incident (e.g., a homicide, robbery, rescue effort, etc.) or to a specialized field of expertise (e.g., arson, explosives, aviation, etc.). Again, the restrictions contained in P.G. 212-77 "Release Of Information To News Media" and 212-76 "Information Concerning Official Business of Department" MUST be adhered to, APPLICATION/NOTIFICATION must also be submitted for these positions. In addition, prior to entering into any contractual relationship of this nature, members of the service are advised to seek private legal counsel. The sale of exclusive proprietary rights, based on the involvement of an individual in a particular incident, is strictly prohibited. For example, a member of the service assigned to the Aviation Unit can be retained as a consultant or advisor on general technical matters or for background on a particular incident; they cannot sell exclusive "rights" to a production company for the story of the officer's role in that incident.

 - (1) A written approval from the Chief of Patrol, (Commanding Officer, Movie/Television Unit) is required, IF employment involves working as a technical advisor for motion picture or television productions.

In addition to complying with any other relevant Department policy, procedure, or prohibition, members engaging in off duty employment as attorneys will also adhere to the following:

- a. Members shall not represent private interests for compensation before any City agency or appear anywhere, directly or indirectly, on behalf of private interests in matters involving the City.
- b. Members shall not appear as attorney or counsel against the interests of the City in any litigation in which the City or other government agency is a party, or in any action or proceeding in which the City or other government agency is a complainant.
- c. Members shall not serve as an attorney, or represent any party in any matter in negligence cases or criminal cases in state courts within the City's five boroughs.
- d. Members shall not accept fees for referring a criminal or negligence case pending in state courts within the City's five boroughs.

GUIDELINES FOR SECURITY RELATED OFF DUTY EMPLOYMENT:

- a. In addition to complying with the Guidelines and General Prohibitions, uniformed members accepting off duty employment in the private security field are advised that:
 - (1) They will not, in most instances, be entitled to or receive legal representation and/or indemnification from the City. Those benefits of City employment are afforded to municipal employees only when they act within the scope of their employment and in discharge of official duties.

- (2) By virtue of that employment, relinquish the power and authority conferred by the laws of the State of New York as a police officer. However, when an officer effects an arrest in furtherance of the private employer's interest they are acting primarily on behalf of that employer, not in discharge of their duties as a police officer. Uniformed members of the service in their private capacity may not investigate crimes for private employers and ordinarily should be the complainant and not the arresting officer for off duty situations which arise (for example: trespass and burglary situations) unless the exigencies of the circumstance require that they act in an arresting capacity.
- (3) Because the City will not ordinarily indemnify uniformed members of the service against claims brought by individuals for action taken in connection with off duty employment, it is recommended that uniformed members of the service ascertain whether their private employer maintains liability insurance covering the off duty employment and affords legal representation and indemnification for acts or omissions occurring during off duty employment and in furtherance of employer's interests.
- (4) All rules and regulations established by the Police Commissioner must be complied with fully.
- (5) All court time, both arraignment and follow-up appearances directly related to any duties and responsibilities in the off duty employment may not be performed on Police Department time nor may overtime compensation be received for such time from the City of New York. Accordingly, OVERTIME REPORTS should not be submitted in connection therewith. Further, it is the uniformed member's responsibility to see that the off duty employer/client has Workers' Compensation on coverage for guards to cover any injury or disability received in their employment. It is also understood that the City has a claim on any monies paid by Workers' Compensation that would duplicate paid sick leave by the City.
- (6) APPLICATION/NOTIFICATION must be submitted to the Employee Resources Section for each employer/company and include all locations of assignment (if additional space is needed attach a separate sheet). For each new assignment, even if for the same employer, a new request for approval must be submitted, with the employer's name, and new location of person or premises to be protected.*
- (7) Members may NOT work in off duty employment as security guards at a location where a strike or labor dispute is ongoing.
- (8) If a uniformed member of the service's firearm is discharged or member is injured as the result of an assault, while employed off duty in a security related capacity in New York City only, the precinct of occurrence must be notified immediately by the uniformed member involved. Incidents occurring outside the City of New York require immediate notification to the Operations Unit. The THREAT, RESISTANCE OR INJURY (T.R.I.) INCIDENT REPORT must be completed and verified for all such incidents (see P.G. 221-04 "Firearms Discharge by Uniformed Members of the Service").
 - a. To expedite processing, a member requesting permission to engage in off duty employment in the security field is authorized to personally deliver the completed APPLICATION/NOTIFICATION to the Employee Resources Section.

ADDITIONAL DATA

When hair samples are required, three hair samples will be collected, cut as close to the skin as possible. The samples should be collected from the same body area, preferably the head. The samples will be individually placed in separate laboratory supplied "Sample Acquisition Cards," and sealed by the collector in the presence of the test subject. These cards will be placed in separate plastic bags, sealed by the collector, and initialed and dated by the test subject. Two hair samples will be forwarded to the contracted laboratory for analysis. The third hair sample will be secured at the Medical Division for use in testing, should the test of the first two hair samples reveal positive results for illegal drugs/controlled substances. Appropriate chain of custody will be maintained at all times.

Except in unusual circumstances, samples will be taken at a facility operated by the Medical Division, or at another health care facility.

In the event that the member concerned is unable to provide adequate hair samples as required in this procedure, the Commanding Officer, Medical Division, or designee, will be contacted. The Commanding Officer, Medical Division, or designee, may authorize the collection of alternate specimen(s) to complete the drug screening test.

When urine samples are required, two urine samples will be collected, each in a separate vial. Prior to testing, the drug screening serial number assigned by the Medical Division and date of test will be affixed to each vial. The serial number will be logged separately with the member's name and maintained at the Medical Division. The member being tested and the witness will then initial the vial stickers. The vials will be sealed in the member's presence after the urine samples have been collected. Appropriate chain of custody will be maintained at all times.

Privacy and dignity will be protected. Hair and urine samples will be collected under maximum feasible privacy. Except in unusual circumstances, only one person of the same sex, consistent with the member of the service's gender identity, will be present with the test subject to observe the urine sample being provided. For chain of custody purposes, that same person will also collect the hair samples.

One or more scientifically accepted initial screening samples will be employed in analysis. A positive report will be made only after final confirmation testing has been conducted. Negative test samples will not be maintained; instead, they will be destroyed.

ADDITIONAL DATA

The "cap," as stated in steps 2 and 3 above, is a "rolling cap" which began April 15, 1986 and is maintained during the term of an individual employee's employment. Once a covered civilian or uniformed member of the service has reached the "rolling cap," cash overtime must be paid.

It is incumbent upon all supervisors and managers to ensure enforcement of overtime authorization requirements.

A member of the service (uniformed or civilian) who has accrued Fair Labor Standards Act compensatory time, upon termination or separation of employment, must be paid for the unused Fair Labor Standards Act compensatory time at the rate of compensation not less than:

- a. The average regular rate received by such member during the last three years of the member's employment, or*
- b. The final regular rate received by such member, whichever is greater.*

Commanding officers/supervisory heads shall be aware of the following general considerations:

- a. Working time of covered employees must be carefully scheduled and monitored to avoid unpaid overtime claims*
- b. Employees will not be permitted to work during their meal periods without written authorization*
- c. A strict system of record keeping of employees' time worked and taken is absolutely mandatory*
- d. Current terms and conditions of collective bargaining agreements will remain in full force and effect as long as they do not differ from the Fair Labor Standards Act.*

Employees must be compensated for "working time." The work week for all employees, except uniformed members of the service, is defined as the seven calendar days beginning at 0001 hours Sunday and ending 2400 hours the following Saturday (one hundred and sixty-eight hours). Overtime compensation at time and one-half for all hours actually worked in excess of forty hours in an established seven day work week is generally required for all non-exempt employees. Uniformed members will receive Fair Labor Standards Act overtime after actually working in excess of one hundred and seventy-one hours within a twenty eight day period. Supervisors and managers concerned must ensure that each covered employee records the employee's starting time at the beginning of the scheduled workday and at their scheduled finishing time.
